ALL COUNTY LETTER NO. 81-105

TO: ALL COUNTY WELFARE DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: TENTATIVE REFUGEE SOCIAL SERVICES PROGRAM ALLOCATION, OCTOBER 1981 -
MARCH 1982

REFERENCE:

The Department of Social Services (DSS) Office of Refugee Services (ORS), is currently operating under the Refugee Act of 1980 (Public Law 96-212). Although California has not as yet been notified by the Federal Office of Refugee Resettlement of its FFY 1982 allocation for refugee social services, DSS has identified $2,658,291 of Federal funds for Title XX type services, except IHSS, provided by county welfare departments to refugees for two quarters, October - December 1981 and January - March 1982. These funds were taken from California's FFY 1981 fourth-quarter allocation. This amount is subject to change and may be all that is available for the full Federal Fiscal Year. More complete information on this is explained in an All County Information Notice, I-125-81 dated October 2, 1981.

The State Budget Act of 1981, Chapter 99, Statutes of 1981, sets forth the methodology of distributing refugee funds to counties; the specific language is "shall be based on the counties' percentage of refugees in the state receiving cash assistance." A tentative six-month allocation based on refugee cash-aided cases is attached.

The Department has also estimated an amount to cover all costs of in-home supportive services for refugees as authorized by the counties. These funds have been set aside at the state level; any surplus in these funds will be distributed to the counties. Any deficit will be funded through future Federal allocations for refugee social services, reduced refugee social services allocations to the counties or funding sources that are unknown at this time which might become available.

If you have any questions regarding this allocation, please contact Ray Perryman at (916) 323-0270.

Sincerely,
